GLORIOUS Summer

Dear Parishioners,

We spent most of the year trying to catch up with our "to-do" list.

When we are not worrying about things to do, we look back to the past with nostalgia or regrets. Summer is a season to live in the present. The present moment is the only time we can meet God and truly start living. This summer, practice living here and now. Forget about the past and future. Enjoy the sun, flowers, trees, mountains and sea. Smell, feel, touch, walk, swim, hike, sit on the patio and read. Praise God with all your senses! Soak in the beauty of "Supernatural British Columbia".

Just being here and now with gratitude is a wonderful prayer, very pleasing to God. You may have many reasons to worry, put them aside for a while, just do what really needs to be done. Connecting with the present moment will ground you in God and allow you to be grateful for every little thing that passes by.... an ice-cream cone, a fresh mango, a butterfly on your finger, the fresh dew on your bare feet. Every day, every moment, find something to be grateful for. Your heart will grow in generosity. You will desire to respond to God's love and give back what you received from life. And you will be re-energized for next fall. Happy summer days. Fr. Pierre
