Dear Parishioners,

What causes disputes and what's the best means for settling them? In Jesus' time it was customary for people to take their disputes to the rabbis for settlement. Jesus refuses such a case and instead gives the disputant a parable to "mull over". How would you react if Jesus refused to settle your dispute, but gave you a parable instead?

What is the point of Jesus' story about a wealthy landowner and why does he call him a fool? Jesus does not fault him for his industriousness, but for his egoism and selfishness. Like the rich man and Lazarus, he had lost the capacity to be concerned for others. His life was consumed with his possessions and his only interests were in himself. His death was the final loss of his soul! In the parable of the rich fool, Jesus gives a lesson on using material possessions. His lesson contains a warning to beware of all covetousness. To covet is to wish to get wrongfully what another possesses or to begrudge what God gave him. Jesus restates the commandment "do not covet", but he also states that a person's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions. In this little parable Jesus probes the heart: where is your treasure? Treasure has a special connection to the heart, the place of desire and longing, the place of will and focus. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. What do you treasure most?

"Lord, free me from all covetousness and from attachment to possessions. May I wholly desire you as my treasure and portion. Help me to make good use of the material blessings you give me that I may use them generously for your glory and for the good of others."

God Bless.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

Are you suffering from "afluenza"...the relentless pursuit of more and more stuff? Jesus warns us in today's Gospel that "one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." The burden of Christian discipleship and stewardship is also its reward. When we look at what we own in a fresh new light it changes how we live. When we see our possessions as not being our own but as gifts from God, we begin to share ourselves and our possessions with others — not reluctantly but freely and completely. In doing so, the reward is discovering the joy of living unselfishly and the freedom to let go of our need to possess! Stewardship is the antidote to afluenza! What do you own — and what owns you?
