RE-CREATE ME, O LORD!

Have you ever met a mother weeping over the death of her only child? What did you say and do? Did you feel utterly powerless? In these moments, our guts are painfully wrenched. Jesus, too, when He saw the widow carrying her only son to the graveyard, felt a great pain in His "bowels." That is translated by the word "compassion." A word that has been over-used and became sweet sentimentality. The other translation "moved with pity" isn't any better.

Three times in the Gospel of Luke, God is said to have "compassion." It always leads to an act of re-creation by God. A physical, or a spiritual, and/or a psychological re-creation. In today's Gospel, we see a physical re-creation for the dead son, and a spiritual and psychological re-creation for the mother. In the second reading, Paul attests that he has been spiritually and supernaturally re-created. He had been a violent persecutor of the Church, "breathing murderous threats," he became almost instantly the champion of Catholic faith, the great lover of Jesus Christ, establishing Christian communities all over the Roman Empire and finally dying in Rome as a martyr. The "good" thief beside Jesus on the Cross, was also re-created "instantly." Jesus told him, "Today, you will be in heaven with Me in Paradise."

"This power that rose Jesus from the dead is at work in you, the believers," as St. Paul wrote (Rom 8:11.) Don't think that it was at work only then, but not now! Jesus is still alive. He is risen! Don't you know that each instant of your life, God is constantly creating you, breathing life in you? If He would stop doing it, you would stop existing! You can and must ask God that His very breath keep you spiritually alive. By this, I mean, that even if you would hit rock bottom, even if you would fall into the emptiness of a life without hope, He would re-create you. "For man, it is impossible. To God, everything is possible." God created the Universe from nothing...

just by "speaking" His Word, His Son. "Let there be light." And light was! "Young man, I say to you, rise!" "Talitha koum" "Young woman, rise." I wish I could tell the stories of people who have been brought back to life, spiritually. Maybe I will during a homily.

May I give you a personal testimony, now. During my second year of theology at the University of Montreal in 1968, I almost "lost" my faith in the Scriptures, in the Church, in Christ. The theology that was taught to us was so rationalistic, so critical! We were constantly exposed to the Freudian critique of the faith, the Marxist critique, and the scientific critique. My faith was shaken down to the foundation. I had decided that I did not belong anymore to the Grand Seminary. But before leaving, I was inspired to stop at the chapel. There I challenged the God that I stopped believing in! "If you exist, tell me whether or not I should become a priest! I want an answer tonight! This is your last chance!" I stayed a couple of hours in the last pew of the chapel. Then, something happened. A strong command from nowhere. "You must stay!" I had a peace that lasted ten years. And an unshakable faith. A deep meaning for my life. I never regretted my choice.

God Bless you, Fr. Pierre

Wednesday, June 12 from 7pm-9pm at Immaculate Conception, Delta. All are welcome, seminar is free.
