Healing Our Father Image

Dear Parishioners, Many of us have a love-hate relationship with our father on earth. We desperately need their admiration and affirmation; yet we resent some of the things they did or failed to do. Maybe you recall your father as the punisher. How often my Mom said to me, "Wait till Dad is back from work! He will punish you if you don't obey me now!" Maybe you recall your father as an absent, distant, tired and angry person. My Dad used to work seven days a week from morning till night. I was five years old when he took his first vacation, a very short one! The few hours he would spend with us, every Sunday night, he was caught up in his inner thoughts, absent, sleepy. I thought he did not care for me. I now know I was wrong but that is how I perceived him.

Distant, preoccupied with discipline, angry, these were traits of my father image. I have unconsciously projected these traits on God, my Father in heaven. This childish image of God the Father is still alive in me, tarnishing the true image of God, the Loving Father of the Prodigal Son. I need healing.

However, the last few years, I was blessed with a "safer" and more loving relationship with God the Father. I know he cares for me. He is not out there to punish me. He is right here to heal me. He has a plan for me. He wants me to unfold and shape this plan together with him. He is a partner and a friend in the "family business". The Father of the Prodigal Son in today's Gospel of Luke is very much like this. He was constantly looking out at the far horizon for the return of his delinquent son. As soon as he saw him, he ran all the way towards him, forgetting all sense of self-respect, and he covered him with his embrace. Immediately the Father restored him as his beloved heir.

What are you waiting for? God is not picky. He does not request perfect contrition on your part. The Prodigal Son came back because he was hungry, not because he missed his Father. The Father gave him food and love. Accept his joyful fatherly love, be healed, and become a good father or a good mother to your children and to God's children.

God bless you. Fr.Pierre.
