Pastor's
Corner

Sunday November 18, 2007

Dear Parishioners,

Sunday's Gospel reminds us of the opposition and sometimes even downright hostility that will come to those who preach the Good News of Jesus Christ. Why is that? Because the preached message of Christ goes so contrary to the expectations of society for us. Where society wants to preach individualism, recognition, power, competition, and material success as the goals of life and signs of "achievement", the Good News of Jesus Christ preaches something quite different. And, Henri Nouwen spells out what this difference is:

"What is the testimony of the Spirit? The Spirit will witness to the unconditional love of God that became available to us through Jesus. This divine love, as it becomes manifest within the structures of the world, is a light in the darkness. It is a light that the darkness cannot accept. The divine love of God reveals to us that fruitfulness is more important than success, that the love of God is more important than the praise of people, that community is more important than individualism, and compassion more important than competition. In short, the light of the Spirit reveals to us that love conquers all fear. But the world rules by fear. Without fear the world doesn't know how to control or govern.

The Spirit's testimony threatens the world. It is not surprising that anyone who testifies with the Spirit is a danger to the world. That is why Jesus predicts, "an hour is coming when those who kill you will think that by doing so they are offering worship to God. And they will do this because they have not known the Father or me." (John 16.2-3)

...When we do not live in deep communion with God – that is, with the Spirit of Jesus within us – then religion is easily put into the service of our desire for success, fame, and stardom. From that place we are willing to 'kill' whoever is in the way of reaching our goal. The tragedy is that indeed we quickly convince ourselves that we do the killing in God's name." (Contd..)

(Pastors corner contd...) Moving away from what the world considers as important then, let us instead live out our lives as witnesses of Christ by cultivating elements in our personal lives, in the lives of our family, our Church, and our community, that foster fruitfulness, love of God, community and compassion, so that indeed, the darkness that comes with fear may be dispelled just that little bit more. God bless, Fr. Mark.

LOOKING FOR DIRECTION? Lay Apostle Information Evening

Several years ago, "Anne", a wife and mother of six, started receiving messages from God the Father, Jesus, Mary and the saints. These messages, received in the form of inner locution, are spoken with divine love, clarity and authority, and Anne has received permission from her bishop, Leo O'Reilly, Diocese of Kilmore, to publish the works. Jesus calls this work His Rescue Mission and says that it is the greatest mission of mercy the world has ever known, and there is a heavenly urgency in distributing the messages to as many of his children as possible. If you have ever yearned to hear God's voice and know His will, consider attending a special presentation at St. Mary' Church basement on Mon. Nov. 26 at 7pm. Contact Karen (778) 990-0123 or www.directionfourtimes.com for further info.

A message from Fr. Pierre Leblond, O.P. – We will have an evening of information about the lay apostle movement. I got to know about this movement at my retreat in Ars, attended by 850 priests and 15 bishops. I am therefore confident about this new addition to our parish groups.

– Fr. Pierre
