"Knowing the truth and not doing it is as foolish as writing a love letter and not mailing it."

Dear parishioners,

I don't know about you but there are many unfinished and unsent letters in the trash bags of my life. I plan to do something and I don't finish it. I want to say, "I'm sorry" but never manage to open my mouth, then I forget about it. I want to pray more, but never find the time. I want to forgive, but I never feel it is the right time. I wish I could stop presuming bad intentions on the part of others...

If you are like me, don't get discouraged. We are in good company. The great St. Paul himself confessed to the Romans, "I keep doing the things I don't want to do, and I don't do the things I want to do." For many years before his conversion, the daily prayer of St. Augustine was, "Lord, give me the grace of chastity, but not yet..."

How then, can we go from hearers of the Word of God to doers of the Word of God? Here are 5 pieces of advice that have been very useful to me:

1.) Keep in your mind & heart the awareness of what is at stake. Here it is: If you love not only in word & speech, but in deed & truth" (1 John 3:18). If you put into practice the commandments of Jesus, you will become "storm proof" in this life and in the next. Your life, your very self will be like a house built on a rock. No storm will tear it down. "He who does the will of God abides forever. The world will pass away, and the lust of it, but not him." (1 John 2:17).

2.) Divide your goals into small, easier objectives or steps. For example, try to be patient one hour a day; read the Bible for five minutes a day.

3.) As soon as you are inspired by the Word of God to practice something, do it right away. The smallest truth, being practiced will lead you to deeper understanding of the bigger truth and a greater ease & joy in practicing it. Guaranteed!

Continued...

4.) Cut off the sources of negative thoughts and actions. It will be like cutting off the water supply of bad weeds and they will dry out. Cut off pornography completely. Renounce the thoughts of revenge, of bitterness. Do not cultivate your worries.

5.) Fill your soul daily with beauty: beauty of nature, beauty of God, beauty of little children, beauty of the true disciples of Christ.

God bless you, Fr. Pierre

EXODUS MINISTRY SPECIAL MEETING

Exodus Ministry is having a special meeting on Wed., June 4 to organize a new group that will go to Burnaby Youth Custody Centre. We are creating a "Catholic Jam Session" inside the youth prison. If you or someone you know has an interest in visiting kids in jail and especially, if you like to sing or have some musical talent, please join us after the 7:00 mass on Wed., June 4 in the Rectory Basement. We are also recruiting people who would like to assist Fr. Pierre when he goes to say Mass at the prison once a month. Please come and find out if this the time for you to answer the call in Mathew 25: "...for I was in prison and you visited me..." For further information, contact Larry Lynn at 604 899 4234 or elarrylynn@telus.net.

THEOLOGY OF THE BODY FAITH SERIES AT ST. MARY'S

Come & join us for 3 more Tuesdays (June 3, 10, 17) in the Church Basement from 7pm to 9pm. Admission is free. St. Mary's Young Adult Community will present the final 4-parts of Created and Redeemed, a faith series based on Pope John Paul II's universal teaching, Theology of the Body. Not to worry if you missed the first half, it is still worth coming out. Trust us, this education on being human will blow you away. Young or old come on out, it's for everyone. Don't forget your workbook. If you're new, workbooks will be available for $7.50. See you there.

PROJECT ADVANCE

We are now at 39% of our parish goal and going strong. However, so far less than 7% of registered families have contributed, therefore we encourage everyone to participate in this event (100%). Participation is the "Key" factor in making this event a success! Please pick up a form and show your support! Your generosity is greatly appreciated regardless of the amount.

YOUNG ADULT COFFEE NIGHT

Regaining Your Sense of Wonder: This Friday, June 6 at 8pm in the Rectory Basement. There are now 6.5 billion people in this world. Among those people, God created you. You are UNIQUE. There's only one YOU in this world. God created you because HE LOVES YOU. Through a discussion on the ways that God's presence is made known through a Ministry of healing, Jacqueline Loh, a young adult will speak about the believable and powerful ways through which God's graces are made known to you. Topics will include: Grace, Discernment, the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Eucharist. The testimonies are empowering. You will leave with the realization that the Holy Spirit is truly 'alive' and walking with you.
