STAY ALIVE!!

Dear Parishioners,

We go through the motions of life like a robot. Like the young man who does not see that this woman is in love with him. Everybody else but him noticed it! Maybe you are like the husband who does not see anymore all that your wife is doing for you. Maybe you did not notice the change that is happening in your daughter's heart.

When I was a teenager I stopped going to church for many years. Then I had an inner conversion and a few years later I announced to my parents I was entering the seminary in the hope of one day becoming a priest. They could hardly believe me! Their eyes had been closed to what had happened to me during these years even though I lived with them.

Until a few years ago, I too was blind to the real needs of my parishioners. I was blind to the marvels God was doing every day in some of you and in me. He sent me people almost every day to wake me up to the beauty of His Kingdom and to the tragedies of this world.

One of the purposes of Advent is to reconnect us with the persons God sends us every day to tell us of his presence and the needs of the blind ones. Who are these persons for you? Name them. What are they telling you?

God Bless, Fr. Pierre
